We are so excited to be able to bring you the 2022–2023 edition of Genesis. FHS's yearbook! Hopefully, you're just as excited to open up the book as we were excited to make it. Lots of time and hard work were put into the making of this book, but we don't regret any of the investment we've put into documenting "our year."

A message from the editors

We hope that when you look back at this book, with all the clubs, activities, quotes, and portraits, you remember your high-school days fondly. It may seem embarrassing when you look back through this book 10 or 20 years after graduation, but that's OK. At that point, the embarrassment will just be a sign of your growth as a person. We have faith that in the coming years, you'll become someone your high-school self would be massively proud of.

Thank you to all who supported us in the creation of this yearbook. We hope you enjoy!

All our best,
FHS Yearbook Staff

RODGERS AND HAMMERSTEIN'S

The 2022–23 edition of Genesis, the yearbook of Framingham High School, Volume 32, was published by Shutterfly Lifetouch, LLC with a press run of 375 copies.

The 180-page full-color book was printed on gloss 100lb paper. The price of the book was $60–$75. The advisor was Ben Gaynor. The sales representative was Dan Bliss. Lifetouch and Prestige Portraits by Lifetouch were the school's official photographers. Additional photos were provided by Yearbook staff members and the FHS community. Some photos for the Year in Review come from Unsplash.com.

PRODUCTION

The book was put together by a staff of nine members. Software programs used for the book were yearbook.lifetouch.com and Adobe Photoshop. Staff members utilized iMacs as well as their Chromebooks and their personal equipment. The text of this colophon was adapted from organizedadviser.com.

EDITORIAL POLICY

Genesis, the official school-sponsored yearbook of Framingham High School, serves as a laboratory and educational tool. As it is a student-created publication, we regret that errors can and will occur. However, the school staff, yearbook students, publisher, school administration, yearbook advisor, and photo studios are not liable for errors, missing information, photos, or lost material. Technical malfunctions can also occur causing loss of data. No refunds or exchanges will be made. Yearbooks are commemorative product and are a first and final print run. Therefore, no re-prints are available.

The yearbook staff strives to create an authentic book for the student body, faculty, and Framingham community that preserves the memory of the school year. It is the staff's goal to include as many students as possible.

Although the students work under the leadership of a faculty advisor, the content of the yearbook is determined by the student staff and should reflect all areas of student interest. The yearbook staff will not publish material determined to be "unprotected speech," meaning any material that is libelous, obscene, and disruptive of the school process or unwarranted invasion of privacy.

THANK YOU

This book came together with the help of many people over several months of work. We are so incredibly thankful for those who aided us during this process. We would like to thank the FHS administration and office staff for helping manage communications and distribution of books: Fran Blaschke and Pete Erbland for the use of K009 as a production space; Wendy Chan, student activities treasurer; and OTS coordinator Kathleena Thompson.

FHS administration: Dr. Amy Gerade, Mark Albright, Jeff Convery, Jon Kanavich, Greg Lagan, Hanrya Lord, Michelle McGahan

Office staff: Ana Linda Garcoet, Renata Hingston, Maria Medina, Viviane Oliva, Shonda Parejo, Alessandra Poletti, Isabel Rossetti, Jaqueline Scheidt, Evelyn Torres
